THIS WEEK'S STORIES:

Stories are numbered; scroll down for stories of interest.

SECTION 1: Getting There: Airlines, Airports, Cruises, & Weather

1. Another Day, Another Injury from Jet Blast Through the Fence at SXM Airport / Maho

Every year, thousands of tourists gather along Maho beach on the Dutch side to gawk at jetliners arriving and departing from SXM Airport. Inevitably, some of them are injured either by flying debris or by the blast from jetliners. That happened again last week.

If you must go to that area, stay away from the fence and avoid the middle beach area where sand and everything else goes flying when planes take off. It's not safe and can lead to serious injury.

2. Lots of Tropical Activity, But None Significantly Impacting SXM

The only weather this week that will affect St. Maarten is a tropical wave expected to cross the northern Leeward islands this Wednesday and Thursday. It's not expected to develop into a tropical depression or a storm, but hopefully it will bring much-needed rain to the island.

3. Flight Schedules Continue to Fluctuate: Reconfirm

Through the fall, flight changes continue to abound making it possible that your flight could change. The airline may or may not notify you, so reconfirm. It's a nuisance but United Airlines and American both have issues, apparently stemming from their respective mergers.

4. What Should You Pay for Airfare? Our Low Fare Grid Has The Answers

The Low Fare Grid on our members-only "Secret Website" lists fares you should look for when making reservations. The fares have changed little in recent months as airlines rake in mammoth profits from fees and from the low cost of jet fuel. The carriers could do sales but instead pile on profits, in part to help pay off the cost of hundreds of new aircraft -- particularly in the case of AA.

If you're not a member of JMB Website Supporters, know that our low fare grid -- plus a great way to get low fares -- are two of about 240 SXM discounts and benefits you get when you join. See story 5 about a source of low fares and also see story 11 about the sale, which ends this Friday.

5. A Great Source of Low Airfares & More Available Free to JMB Members

JMB Website Supporters now gives you access to a private, "members only" travel wholesale club that offers incredible prices not only on airfares but on packages not just to the Caribbean, but worldwide.

Retail travel sites — the ones whose names you know very well — are heavily regulated. But private travel clubs like this, which normally charge members prices for membership/admission, are regulated differently and consequently, can offer much better pricing.

The organization providing these travel benefits has been traveling under the radar for 25 years and is only now making its travel reservations prowess publicly known. It's SkyMed Travel Club and it is entirely separate from the SkyMed "takes you home" medical evacuation service we've been recommending to you since shortly after the millennium.

The SkyMed Travel Club offers exceptional pricing on everything and almost invariably beats everyone else's pricing. We have been testing it for months and have found the pricing to be extraordinary — even on the wildly popular river cruises that are a tourism phenomenon throughout Europe and are quickly gaining popularity here in the US.

And normally, this organization charges you $99 to join plus $99 annual renewals. But for our JMB Website Supporters members, the cost to join is zero as will be the cost for renewals. Exclusively through us, you get access to a world-class global ticketing mechanism without paying one cent to get in the door. Go to the members-only Secret Website and click on the Low Airfare Grid for details on the SkyMed Travel Club. Log in through the orange login box below the masthead at everything.sxm.com. Your username is the email address you have registered with Membership Services. If you forgot your password, click "forgot password" in the login box.

Do join the SkyMed Travel Club and use them to make all your travel reservations; you will not be disappointed once you've booked through them.

Not a JMB member yet? See story #11. Membership is on sale but the sale is over this coming Friday.

6. Available to All: FlyTravelGo Is The Easiest-to-Use Travel Reservations Website

Check it out; it's remarkably fast and easy. All profits from our www.flytravelgo.com site help support SXM Weekly News and our SXM island discount program, JMB Website Supporters.

SECTION 2: Accommodations: Hotels, Inns, Timeshares

7. Caravanserai Timeshare Owners: Still Time To Join Litigation Against Alegria

Former Caravanserai resort timeshare owners are becoming aware that the door is open to join the group of other former Caravanserai owners litigating against Alegria, the entity that took over the resort and attempted to declare all timeshare contracts null and void. A number of them are joining but the door closes October 15.

The group, named TOCA, beat Alegria in court. Alegria is expected to appeal but the view of many is that TOCA has an excellent chance to prevail.

If you "owned" timesharing at Caravanserai and did not sign the form Alegria emailed, you ought to consider joining this group.

And if you owned timesharing at Caravanserai and did sign that form, contact Lexwell attorneys in SXM. It seems to us that Alegria's mailing of that form may not have followed due process. If so, it may have been illegal. If that's the case then victims might be able to have it overturned in court in SXM.

If you're a former Caravanserai timeshare owner and want more information from TOCA, contact tocagroup@gmail.com. Include all the info they might need about your Caravanserai timeshare ownership.

See next story.

8. Court Decision on Alegria vs. Marty's Dream Bar: Marty Wins, Alegria's Third Straight Loss in Court

From Marty's Dream Pool Bar:

"Again Alegria did not succeed to remove us from The Dream Pool Bar, as expected since we do nothing wrong. We are delighted to continue to serve y'all great cocktails and give the best service y'all deserve to the guests at Alegria and anyone visiting The Dream Pool Bar. Thank you to all the peeps around the world for your support. Always fight the good fight. Never give in and never be intimidated."

9. SXM Timeshare Resort of the Week #13

Despite heavy adverse publicity about several SXM timeshare resorts, there are many on the island that are quite well-run, responsive to their timeshare owners, and reasonable in cost. In this series we've been talking about several of them. Each one we list will be added below, most recent first.

St. Maarten Sea Palace is the only timeshare resort actually in downtown Philipsburg. Divi is nearby but not downtown. From Sea Palace during the day downtown is an easy walk.

Sea Palace has been around for years, it's located on Great Bay beach, and it has had significant recent upgrades. Timeshare owners give it very high marks; see <http://www.seapalaceresort.com/>.

We also suggest you go to our Everything St. Maarten Facebook Site and ask there about specific resorts and about the recent experience of people there. Recent matters -- you won't benefit from yesterday's news.

Timeshare resorts covered so far in this series:

12. Dutch Side Government Falls Again; What It Means To The Island & To You

It sounds dramatic and in fact it is, but the bottom line is that it has no practical impact on tourists. That's the good news. The bad news is that the government is in a bit of disarray; the current coalition has fallen apart as some Members of Parliament (MPs) have changed their party affiliations, something that seems to happen often in SXM. So the current Dutch Side government is no more.

One source close to those involved says that the expected dissolution of parliament and call for new elections will "cost the country a lot of money" over the next two years. The problem is that SXM has about a dozen political parties with strong personalities -- and coalition governments result. One party can win more votes than any other in an election, but the losers can form a coalition if the total number of MPs they represent constitute a majority.

But coalitions have proved fragile as MPs change affiliations.

Another source close to the government is telling us that the new coalition will form within three weeks and that it will involve the National Alliance, the DP, the USP, Frans Richardson, and two independents who jumped from the UP. All the acronyms are political parties.

Meanwhile, Holland is watching intently. It has been critical of SXM and the fall of yet another coalition probably isn't what Holland wants to see.

We'll keep you posted.

13. Calls for Independence Viewed as Real, But That May Not Matter

When we were discussing the fall of the government last night with a long-time seasoned island source, we asked whether the source felt the calls for independence for St. Maarten from the Netherlands were serious or just chatter. The response: "I think they're serious."

Our impression is that Dutch Side SXM officials don't like what they see as the intrusion by Holland into island affairs. We're also sure they don't like the anti-SXM public insults from some elected officials in Holland -- the use of the derogatory term "banana republic" for example.

Independence will not happen soon, if ever. We'll watch and let you know in SXM Weekly News.

14. An SXM Love Story

Sarah Coalter-Finch and her husband went on a "vacation of a lifetime" to SXM to celebrate their 10th wedding anniversary. It was a place they treasure, as do all of us.

"My husband and I just celebrated our 10 year wedding anniversary in St. Martin, the best place in the world. Three weeks later I was laying him to rest after he was killed in a auto accident," she told us. The couple has three young children. See their story here: <http://cedarspringspost.com/tag/charles-finch/>

"My son's teacher started a gofundme account and we really need it to build as we are waiting for funds to come in. Charles my husband loved this beautiful place. We met tons of locals while we were there and the love around the island is amazing."

Any help you could offer this young family will be appreciated: <https://www.gofundme.com/g8g8g89wu5n>

15. Restaurant Comings and Goings (Lots)

Reported previously:

- a) Mario's Bistro has moved from Marigot to Porto Cupecoy and it's about to do a soft opening.
- b) Elisa Cohen, former chief honcho of Bikini Beach Bar on Orient Beach, soon will open Shanghai Brasserie -- also at Porto Cupecoy.
- c) Two very well known SXM restaurateurs are opening new restaurants, one in Simpson Bay and the other in the Cupecoy area. They both swore us to secrecy but we'll fill you in as soon as we can.
- d) Randy Attin's Fig restaurant, formerly in Cupecoy, is moving to Maho.
- e) The long-closed Harbour Restaurant located near the entrance to Isle Del Sol Marina is supposed to reopen this month, according to a sign in front. It's next door to SkipJacks, one of SXM's top seafood restaurants.
- f) Ocean Restaurant, Italian, opened Sept.25 at Divi Little Bay; serves breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

g) Opposite the Gourmet Marche in Simpson Bay is a new Indian Restaurant which we believe has moved from an upstairs location in Marigot. Signage is up; it's across from a car rental storage depot.

h) Le Gourmet Marche in Simpson Bay has closed, though we don't know whether it's for vacation or permanently. It's next to Lal's Curry in a Hurry, which we've recommended for years.

16. Zero Tolerance Dutch Side Gun Control To Be Toughened

In light of the murder of bicycle patrol officer Gamali Benjamin during the Summer -- the first St. Maarten police officer ever to be killed in the line of duty -- and other offenses involving guns, the Dutch Side is further strengthening its anticrime efforts. Details are here, from The Daily Herald: <http://tinyurl.com/om8qfoz>

17. Seaweed Update: Joaquin To Have Any Effect?

For a few days Hurricane Joaquin spun the water into a frenzy in the Bahamas, causing havoc there with its 130+ mph winds and 160 mph gusts. That also stirred up the ocean, but whether it was enough to push Sargasso seaweed (also called sargassum) farther north where it belongs is unknown. When you get here, explore; things change weekly, and a number of recent pictures have shown better conditions on the beaches.

18. Orient Beach Bar/Restaurant Reconstruction Delayed?

Although the progress of construction of the replacement bars and restaurants at Orient beach seems to be proceeding quickly, there is now a sign on the big billboard promoting the reconstruction that implies there will be a delay of a few months in the opening of the new facilities. We're not sure whether that's simply an incorrect inference, or if in fact it's correct. The new buildings are supposed to be open some time during November. It still seems possible to us that this could happen, though it's tight. We expect to be back on Orient beach during November and we'll let you know what we see.

19. Club Orient Reopening; An Early Update on What's New

Club Orient has reopened after its annual closing and has posted these comments on Facebook: "We are thrilled to have our guests home with us at Club O. We had a great first day back and are excited to showcase some of what we've been working on throughout the summer which includes ... state-of-the-art TVs in all of the rooms, new dinner and lunch menus at Papagayo, sleek LED laser focused gooseneck bed lamps ... continuing to beautify the landscaping throughout the resort, 15 units upgraded -- some partially, some completely -- which includes new mattresses, couches, curtains, and more on the way. Come see for yourself."

20. GEBE, The "Electricity" Company, Generates Everything But Electricity

For a number years, the Dutch side electric company, GEBE, usually referred to as geebee, had a problem appearing to be competent. Earlier this year it had improved reliability, but all that went out the window the last few weeks as the utility's service level has plummeted.

All along, GEBE has blamed equipment overhauls and other issues. All utilities overhaul and maintain equipment all the time but somehow they manage to keep the lights on. Somehow, whenever GEBE fixes things, the lights go out which is not convenient for anyone, let alone sensible.

Although GEBE is government owned, it operates like a private bureaucracy and it doesn't like the government's nose in its business. But, at the end of the day, the government is responsible for making sure that electricity from government owned GEBE is reliable. The government has other issues to deal with right now but we hope they solve this one soon — and permanently.

21. Questions & Answers About Medical Evacuation

Here are updated answers to your questions about SkyMed, the folks who fly you home on an ICU-equivalent medical evacuation jet when you become critically ill or injured while traveling. It's a life-saving flight that could easily cost you upwards of $45,000 in cash in advance without SkyMed; thousands of you have bought it through us. To learn more, see www.skymed.com/jmbspecial .

Q. Why do you promote this?

A. We first heard about SkyMed in a mailing years ago from the old Pelican Resort. We thought the idea had great merit for many people and started promoting it in St. Maarten Weekly News.

Several months later, driving back to Sapphire resort after dinner in Grand Case, my wife was very hot and felt nauseous. She started making unusual breathing noises and passed out. Dinner had involved no drinks for either of us and we never drank much anyway; I feared a mini-stroke.

When we arrived at Sapphire minutes later, I immediately called an ambulance. She was treated symptomatically at the resort and later, felt much better.

Although we later discovered that her incident was related to a serious allergy against a certain type of cheese used in a since-defunct Indian restaurant in Grand Case, it was a big wake-up call and we became much more interested in getting SkyMed membership for ourselves.

Later, based on the number of people we were referring to them, SkyMed phoned me and suggested I become a representative. I immediately declined, saying I don't have time which was and is true. The SkyMed executive who had called, Rolly Jodoin, said they would simply provide a webpage for my referrals to use when signing up so SkyMed could track my signups and pay me rep commissions. Instead of simply referring people to SkyMed, I would continue to do what I had done for a number of months and they would compensate me based upon sign-ups. It made sense, since I was joining on my own after being scared by the incident related above and I expected to recommend SkyMed long-term anyway.

That's how it started. I have since signed up several thousand JMB members and readers to SkyMed memberships, dozens of whom have suffered serious medical emergencies in St. Maarten and elsewhere for which they have had to use the service. Every one of them with whom I've spoken has told me the evacuation was handled with military precision and consummate professionalism. SkyMed transported them by ambulance from the hospital located near where their incidents occurred to the plane, then by jet to their destination city, then by another waiting ambulance to the hospital where a medical team familiar with the situation was waiting and had a bed for them. SkyMed makes an average of about three dozen calls to make all this happen.

Q. What's so special about SkyMed? Aren't these services all the same?

A. Not by a long shot. Most other programs take you to "the nearest appropriate facility," not home as SkyMed does. If you're in SXM, that probably means Puerto Rico is where SkyMed competitors would take you. Big difference. Some others also raise prices after you reach a certain age. Or they cancel you on a particular birthday. Sign up for SkyMed today and when you reach age 109 you pay the same price as everyone else. No age discrimination at all -- as long as you pay your membership fee you're good to go.

Q. Do they cancel me if I get really sick?

A. No, they don't. Once you're a member, as long as you continue to pay your membership fee your membership continues regardless of your health, if you buy annual or multiyear memberships and keep them in force. SkyMed does not throw you out if you get sick. If you allow your membership to lapse, you will need to reapply to determine if you're still medically acceptable -- so just don't let it lapse.

Q. I have a few medical issues and I'm in my late 60s. Does SkyMed only accept people in phenomenal health?

A. In its brief application process, completed online or by phone or in person, SkyMed asks for your name, DOB, current medications, medical conditions, and hospitalizations in the last six months. It also asks where you want to be transported should you need a medical evacuation. It now also requests your passport number to help expedite customs / immigration should you require an international medical evacuation flight. The vast, vast majority of applicants are readily accepted. You do not have to be in "phenomenal" health at all.

Q. We stay away for weeks at a time. Do we have to tell SkyMed where we're going?

A. No, you don't. As long as you're home in the US or Canada more than six months per year, you're fine. If you spend more than half of each year away (in aggregate), then you're considered an expatriate (ex-pat) and would need a program custom-tailored for ex-pats because you are away a majority of the time and that means you represent increased exposure. That program is called NATO - the North American Transport Option.

Q. Does SkyMed cover pre-existing conditions?

A. Yes, after a 90 day waiting period. To make sure you're covered for everything when you travel, including pre-existing conditions, just buy your annual or multi-year Ultimate SkyMed membership more than 90 days ahead of your initial date of travel.

Q. I seldom travel now. Do you have short-term plans?

A, Yes, at about $18/day per family. Since they only last a specified number of days, they end when the term of coverage ends. If you want another short-term plan later, you must apply again and medically requalify.

Q. I'm from Canada. May I buy it? I have to get back to my province if I'm seriously ill or my health insurance won't work.

A. Americans or Canadians living at home or elsewhere are eligible to buy SkyMed.

Q. Where does SkyMed provide service?

A. SkyMed plans are focused on members' needs. Most members travel within about 34 countries so SkyMed's basic plans cover all those countries: the USA (all 50 states), Canada, Mexico, Bermuda, the Bahamas, all the nations of the Caribbean including Cuba, plus Belize and Costa Rica.

On annual plans you can buy a $100 annual rider to cover the rest of the world. SkyMed's "Ultimate" plan, available in three- and five-year versions, covers you worldwide except for places you'd probably not want to visit anyway -- such as Iran, Iraq, Syria, Somalia, North Korea, and Afghanistan, to name some.

22. Our Double SkyMed Bonus

----- SkyMed On Sale: Lots of Life-Saving Benefits, Low Cost -----

If you've been thinking about buying SkyMed but just haven't gotten around to it, this is the time.

SkyMed takes you home when you become critically ill or injured while traveling — home to doctors and hospitals you know and trust. With rare exceptions, your medical insurance from the US or Canada isn't valid in St. Maarten. There is also no trauma center in St. Maarten, and the sophisticated medical treatments available at leading US hospitals have no equivalent in St. Maarten / St. Martin. So if you become critically ill or injured, you really do need to get home to the US or Canada and get the help you need.

Thanks to this sale, that has now become a whole lot easier. There are two key reasons.

First, for every year of SkyMed medical evacuation protection you buy from us during the sale, you get an equivalent year of JMB Website Supporters membership free, on us, which brings you an increasing spectrum of benefits and discounts, soon to number close to 250. If you are already a JMB member, we will extend your membership on us for a number of years equal to your new or upgraded SkyMed membership. If you are not a JMB member and buy SkyMed through us, we will establish a JMB Website Supporters membership for you equal to your new or upgraded SkyMed membership's duration of one year or more.

SkyMed costs next to nothing when you buy it for a few days (less than $18/day per family), or it costs $499 for a family plan covering an entire year. The critically important advantage of buying yearly coverage is that you are covered for as long as you continue to renew your membership regardless of your age or health at the time of the renewal. Buy a "short term" plan for a week or so, and you must requalify medically every time you re-apply for another short-term plan.

That same crucial benefit also applies if you get a SkyMed three-year or five-year "Ultimate" membership, the best they offer. (It's also what Jeff has had for a number of years).

The SkyMed Ultimate normally sells for a three-year or a five-year term. One critical advantage of the Ultimate — besides the fact that it covers you around virtually the entire world — is that you are covered in case the price of crude oil makes a U-turn and starts skyrocketing again -- which in fact it seems to be doing right now. Since medical evacuation jets use expensive jet fuel, current pricing for SkyMed annual memberships may increase with the cost of jet fuel. A five-year Ultimate membership will cost you either $59 per month per family, or much less if you prepay it and are a JMB Website Supporters member.

The price is considerably less when you prepay. Non JMB members pay $3495 in advance for five full years for the five-year Ultimate; JMB members pay only $2495 through us — and remember, because of the bonus we mentioned above, when you sign up we will also sign you up for JMB membership enabling you to save $1000 on a five year Ultimate membership that is not available for the same discounted price to nonmembers.

For answers to questions about SkyMed, or to sign up, regardless of whether you are a current JMB member, and to get these JMB membership bonuses and discounts, call JMB Communications weekdays during normal business hours at area code 508-830-3456 and ask for Jeff. This offer can be withdrawn at any time, so please do it soon. That's $1000 off a five-year Ultimate plus a free JMB membership or membership extension -- available only by calling our office. You can learn more about SkyMed at www.skymed.com/jmbxsm but these JMB discounts are not available online. JMB members only, see www.skymed.com/jmbspecial .

When you sign up for the bonus SkyMed memberships shown above, email support@jmbcommunications.com and tell us. We'll verify the signup and that it is through us, then process your bonus. But do it soon... this won't last forever.
