Stories are numbered; scroll down for stories of interest.

SECTION 1: Getting There: Airlines, Airports, Cruises, & Weather

1. Hurricane Season Forecast Further Updated on May 20

Rob Lightbown of Crown Weather, our go-to source of tropical weather information, has now further updated his prediction for the hurricane season that begins June 1 and ends November 30. With permission, we're reprinting portions of his May 20 update below.

Summary: Latest indications continue to point to the potential that the 2017 Atlantic Hurricane Season may be more active across the central and eastern Atlantic than what we previously thought back in early April. The big reason for this forecast of a more active season is due to the fact that a El Nino may never really form this summer or autumn and if it does, it may end up being quite weak. In addition, the ocean water temperatures across the Tropical Atlantic have warmed quite a bit over the past month. The combination of these two factors plus other indications point to the potential for an average number of named storms with the Lesser Antilles, the eastern Caribbean, the Bahamas and the US East Coast at risk from at least 1 tropical storm or hurricane....

Risk Areas:

The Northeast and Eastern Gulf Coast is an area of significant concern for a tropical storm or hurricane landfall. The latest European model is pointing towards the possibility of tropical systems moving into the eastern Gulf of Mexico from the Bahamas or the northwestern Caribbean. This threat area includes the Alabama coast, the Florida Panhandle, the west coast of Florida and the Florida Keys....

The US East Coast From Eastern Florida To Long Island & Southern New England could be another area that is of significant concern this season. The above average rainfall signal from the European model may mean the potential for a tropical storm or hurricane tracking northward and impacting the US East Coast this year. In addition, the area of high pressure near Bermuda is forecast to be weaker than average. If this ends up being true, it could open up the entire US East Coast to being affected by a tropical storm or hurricane. In addition, this also opens up the eastern Gulf of Mexico to a tropical storm or hurricane impact. Finally, all of the analog data which compares the current weather pattern to those from the past points to a significant threat to at least eastern Florida, the Georgia coastline and the Carolinas with a potentially serious threat for areas further north for areas from the New Jersey coast northward into southern New England....

*The Central & Eastern Atlantic from the Lesser Antilles to the coast of Africa *could end up being more active than it has been in the past few years. The ocean water temperatures are now above average and it appears that wind shear could be near or below average leading to more active conditions than what was previously thought. My thinking is that the central and northern Lesser Antilles, Puerto Rico, Hispaniola & Cuba may be an area to really watch for tropical storm/hurricane threats....**

The Caribbean is an area that could be more active this year than it has been over the last few years. The forecast trends from the European model are for more deep tropics activity which could impact the Caribbean. The Bahamas are another area that has an increased threat this year from either a very close brush or a direct impact from a tropical storm or hurricane....

All-in-all, I think that we could see more tropical cyclone activity in the deep tropics this year with 3 areas of particular concern – 1. the central and northern Lesser Antilles, Puerto Rico, Hispaniola and Cuba; 2. The northeastern and eastern US Gulf Coast, including the Alabama coast, the Florida Panhandle, the west coast of Florida and the Florida Keys and 3. The US East Coast from eastern Florida to at least the New Jersey coast and possibly as far north as southern New England.

Message from JMB: If you live in or near any of the areas cited above, we strongly urge you to visit www.crownweather.com and subscribe to Rob Lightbown's ongoing forecasts, sent to subscribers by email. Our experience is that they have been highly accurate over the years and extremely helpful in hurricane planning.

As always, if the area you're in is threatened by a hurricane or tropical storm, always heed the detailed advice and warnings from local forecasters. Don't make life or death decisions based on information from any website.

2 . Gov't Warns: Get Prepared for Hurricane Season

Office of Disaster Management (ODM), is calling on the Sint Maarten community to begin to prepare timely for the Atlantic hurricane season, and to have the necessary plans in place before the peak period of the season which is from August – October. The hurricane season opens on June 1st.

ODM is urging residents to use the next few weeks to prepare adequately by reviewing your annual hurricane season preparatory list. ODM adds that the country's disaster preparedness and emergency management mechanisms will be ready to deal with any eventuality arising during the 2017 Atlantic Hurricane season.

[Hurricane Kit contents suggestions: <http://tinyurl.com/lu3gdqz> -Ed.]

“As we do for every hurricane season, preparing for a storm strike is necessary. Every household and business should take the necessary precautions by preparing, because it only takes one hurricane strike to make it a bad season. “Check your disaster plan and review your disaster supply kit. Prepare early and avoid being caught unprepared. Minimize your dependence on government, family or friends. Preparedness starts with every one of us within our communities," ODM pointed out.

Some of the preparations that should be carried out now are checking hurricane shutters and the roof of your home or business, and to make sure windows and shutters close securely. Persons living along coastal areas as well as those in flood prone areas should start looking at what measures they would take in the event of a hurricane which could cause flood challenges. Mariners who are seeking shelter in the Simpson Bay Lagoon or Oyster Pond should also make plans to stay with friends or at a hotel until the storm has passed rather than staying on-board the vessel.

The 2017 hurricane season officially runs through November 30.

3. TUI To Turn Over Its AMS-SXM Capacity To KLM

This looks to us more like an abandonment of SXM service by TUI rather than a transfer. KLM increases seasonal service to SXM during winter anyway. You be the judge:

<https://www.thedailyherald.sx/islands/66033-tui-transfers-flights-st-maarten-to-klm>

Reduced competition could also increase passenger fares from Amsterdam to SXM. We don't see anything truly positive for the island in this news.

4. Sunrise Airlines May Provide SXM-Cuba Service

US airlines that expected a huge bonanza in their recently awarded flying authority to various destinations in Cuba have found that the result is anything but. Consequently, many have sharply cut service to the island.

Cuba still enforces strong restrictions on what tourists can do there. Freedom to go where you like and do what you like — which is basically what tourists find elsewhere — doesn't exist in Cuba. The tourism infrastructure there is totally lacking from the perspective of most North Americans. Beaches are colossal but without the freedom to use them normally, and without that missing infrastructure, many tourists have reported being disappointed. In time, all that may change, but not for now.

If you're still curious about Cuba and want to visit there for a day or two, you may soon be able to do that through new flights on Sunrise Airlines from SXM, via Haiti. Here are the details.

Shopping for souvenirs, T-shirts, knickknacks, spirits, cigars, gifts, and of course jewelry is just about always on the priority list for tourists visiting St. Maarten / St. Martin. Our secret website, www.everythingsxm.com/secret, available to JMB Website Supporters members exclusively, among its 300 or so total discounts offers dozens of discounts for all kinds of shopping on both sides of the island. Regardless of what you're looking for, Shopping is one of the most popular sections of our entire secret website and it can save you a significant amount of money as you complete your shopping excursions. Members

JMB offers our readers, JMB Website Supporters members, and everyone else short-term, annual, and multiyear memberships in SkyMed, the company that takes its members home when they become critically ill or injured while traveling — something that happens far more often than most people think.

JMB member discounts apply to all SkyMed multiyear memberships. The five year SkyMed Ultimate membership, for example, which offers the most features and benefits of any SkyMed membership plus global coverage through a SkyMed-owned affiliate called GETS, is available for $499 per year guaranteed for 10 years. You pay the full cost of the five-year membership at inception and are guaranteed 10 years at the same price when you agree to automatic renewals when signing up. At a time when oil prices may become unpredictable, such a guarantee involving emergency med flight operations is extraordinary — yet you pay only $2499 total for five full years of family membership at inception. 16. Enzo LaRosa Opens Spaghetti House in Cupecoy; Other Restaurants Grow There

Enzo LaRosa, who recently ran the Infinity restaurant at Oyster Bay Beach Resort, has now opened his own spaghetti house in the Cupecoy area, where many other restaurants are now appearing.

When de Vry took over American University of the Caribbean's Medical School in St. Maarten several years back, it immediately embarked on a course of growth which continues. All those medical students have to eat, so a number of small restaurants have popped up within walking distance of the AUC campus. At the same time, a number of new condominium developments either have already been approved and built or are in the design/construction stage in the same area. That's another reason small, inexpensive restaurants are flocking to the area.

Here is what Enzo says about his new place: "On average we have 4-5 daily pasta specials such as: pesto lasagna, ravioli porcini, spinach ravioli, cannelloni, ravioloni with sea scallops, fettuccine pesto, sun dried tomatoes, chicken, linguine clams, etc." He adds that the price of all dishes is $12 or less.

Nearby, Summit Resort offers outstanding small-resort accommodations in the heart of this burgeoning bevy of new restaurants, walking distance to AUC (good for parents) and it's a scant two minutes away from Cupecoy beach, most of which is clothing optional. Summit owner Bruce Jakobovitz comments: "Right around the corner from Spaghetti House, in one direction, is Little Beirut and in the other, Little Taste Factory. Each is a smaller version of their Simpson Bay location. There's also Bar Code and Fat Tony's, of course, and also Jules Bakery which offers delicious breakfast pastries as well as paninis, salads, sushi and a variety of other lunch items. Right next door is Vegolotion which offers vegetarian dishes (of course). The entire neighborhood has really picked up since Jordan Village opened. There are also new retail stores coming to the Jordan Village tower being built now." (Comments printed with Bruce's permission.)

17. Lee's Roadside Grill Likely to Stick Around, One Way or Another

From the perspective of thousands of customers of Lee's Roadside Grill, the news is all good. Lee continues to fight in court and in public for the right to continue to operate his long-standing restaurant at its current location — a move with which his landlord disagrees.

When we spoke to staff members a couple of days ago, we were told that if Lee is unsuccessful in these efforts, he intends to find another suitable location and reopen the restaurant there — but that is clearly not his top choice.

The restaurant is expected to keep operating at its current location at least well into June. As always, we'll keep you posted.

18. Summit Resort Bar -- Always Breathtaking -- Is Open

Summit Resort, in business for more than 40 years, rests atop a cliff at the northern end of Simpson Bay lagoon, affording its guests and bar patrons perhaps the most exquisite view of the northern part of the island available this side of Pic Paradis. The view is stunning from the pool deck/bar/restaurant area.

The good news is that the bar has now reopened and it is busy every day during happy hours. Definitely check it out. For more on Summit, see www.thesummitresort.com.

19. SXM's Best Japanese Restaurants / Sushi

For years, Bamboo Bernie's in Maho — now simply called Bamboo — was really the island's only actual Japanese restaurant, with an upbeat shtick, music, and great though expensive food.

The soaring popularity of sushi around the world, especially in North America — where it appears in the majority of good grocery stores — is well reflected now on the island.

For some time, upscale French restaurants have featured Sashimi (as fish tartare) in many of their appetizers. In fact, just a couple of months ago, we had some fabulous Wahoo Sashimi at Mario's Bistro in Cupecoy, one of the island's most incredible restaurants for decades.

Now, dozens of restaurants feature sushi in their menus. The island has few actual standalone Japanese restaurants, so what we list here are the best places to get sushi regardless of whether they're standalone restaurants or part of a wider menu. Here are our top choices, in no special order:

Sushiitto, located in Princes Port de Plaisance, combines both Teppanyakki cooking and a sushi bar. You can experience all the usual fun of teppan cooking in front of your seat or enjoy familiar sushi dishes prepared on premises to order served at your table. Great sushi, excellent prices.

Bamboo, which led the charge on sushi on the island, continues to do an excellent job. It has a classic Japanese/Caribbean vibe with highly talented waitstaff and sushi masters and it makes for a fun evening, especially with the group. It's a bit pricey.

Ginger, located in the parking area behind IZI Ristorante Italiano, is simpler, small, rather reasonably priced, and popular even with Indians following a vegan menu.

Dreams, south of Marigot along the water, offers a gorgeous location and equally gorgeous sushi selections.

Big Fish, the phenomenally busy not-just-fish restaurant in oyster pond next to Mr. Busby's Beach Bar, has an extensive menu plus quite fantastic sushi which can be a meal in itself. The sushi dinners or appetizers are very well designed and highly creative — definitely among the best you've tried anywhere. Super stuff.

If you love sushi or other Japanese creations, you'll find everything you're looking for in SXM.

21. A Closer Look at Best Reasons for Taking SXM Summer Vacations: Part 2

We recently listed these reasons for taking a Summer vacation in SXM:

1. Much less traffic than during high season (winter).
2. Much lower prices for car rentals and accommodations.
3. No competition for sand space at any island beaches.
4. Uncrowded restaurants mean less waiting and less need for making reservations except on holidays.
5. The ocean is warmer -- well up in the 80s. July is a picture-perfect month: clear skies, low humidity, no sweltering like you'd get staying home (near-constant ocean breezes are a great help). You gotta come, mon...
6. All restaurants are open, so you can go to your favorites night after night after night with no crowds. And everything tastes better in SXM...
7. Plane watching is easier at Maho beach because there are fewer tourists, though cruise ship people are still here. As an experienced stayover tourist, you can point at them when a departing plane blows them into the ocean. (No offense.)

8. Etna Ice Cream melts very slowly no matter how hot it gets. And it's creamier and tastes better than the stuff you get at home.

9. Jewelers may just make the best deals of the year since there are fewer customers around during summer -- leaving you more time to haggle.

10. We'll leave number 10 open for you to fill in after you vacation in SXM this Summer. Stay tuned... we'll be looking for what you feel #10 should be. It might just win you something.

Last week, we explored #5 and #2. This week, it's #1 and #10:

We're not about to suggest to you that there is no traffic on St. Maarten in low season; that isn't true. But the low season traffic is great compared to traffic in the middle of high season or, even worse, during the Heineken Regatta or Christmas week. So if you plan your summer vacation in St. Maarten you'll miss something that you would invariably run into had you stayed home: tens of thousands of other people trying to get exactly where you're going at the same time, yielding gridlock and frayed nerves.

You can avoid all that by simply going to St. Maarten, where summer is low season and traffic is easy. It makes us think of, "Summertime, and the livin' is easy," because in SXM, it is exactly that. That's our comment about #1.

Re: #10, think of what you like about St. Maarten and picture everything in an uncrowded, unhurried situation: that's what you get in a summer vacation in St. Maarten, when all the restaurants you love (or practically all) are wide open and doing business as usual but with virtually no waiting and many smiling faces. It doesn't get any better than that.

As we said last week, if you're thinking about coming to SXM during July 4, do it; you'll find fireworks here, although they won't be quite at the same level you might be accustomed to at home. They're still fireworks, it's still July 4, and there are plenty of burgers and fries and beers for everybody.

Beat the crowds, save some money, and enjoy yourself in SXM this summer. Pass this message along to your friends -- SXM is perfect for Summer vacations.

We'll talk more about summer vacations in SXM next week; in the meantime, enter our new giveaway now. Enter here.

24. Scam Warning When You Advertise Timeshare Weeks for Rent/Sale

For many years, the top of our page featuring St. Maarten timeshare weeks for sale or for rent has contained warnings about scammers.

We've just heard that the scammers are at it again, using one of their classic techniques. They offer to send you a check for more than the amount of the rental if you are willing to immediately send them a check or wire them money for their overpayment. Never do that. Their checks are invariably bogus, and by the time your bank discovers that and charges back your account, you are out several hundred dollars. Read our warnings carefully to be sure you are not victimized, regardless of where you're advertising. Again read our warnings very carefully. Our page is http://everythingxsm.com/sxm/timeshare_rent_sale/index.shtml

26. A Few Stories About SXM Tourists You May Know

Picture yourself in any of these situations remembering that anything can happen anywhere, anytime.

-- A dentist visiting SXM fell down some stairs and landed on his face, causing serious trouble with a number of teeth. SkyMed flew him home to New York where he had his dental surgeon fix him up, then SkyMed flew him back to SXM to finish his vacation.

-- A woman carrying groceries to her car in SXM tripped over the parking curb and fell, breaking her hip. A call to SkyMed after she was stabilized at the Medical Center and she was rushed home to her own doctors who took care of her.

-- A couple was vacationing in SXM when the husband fell and broke his leg about one month after they had bought their SkyMed membership. After he was stabilized at the hospital, SkyMed flew him home on a medevac jet with a medical attendant. Out-of-pocket medevac cost paid 100% by SkyMed was $38,000; this member paid $0, as did all the others in this article.

-- Two men were horseback riding on Cay Hill, SXM. A car backfired, spooking one of the horses that threw its rider.

The other rider, a SkyMed member, got off his horse to be sure his friend was OK. Car backfired again, horse got spooked again, kicking the healthy guy in the head. He was lucky: only had a huge dislocation of his jaw. Hospital had no idea what to do. He was MedEvac'd home to PA via SkyMed where a team of doctors was waiting and surgery fixed his jaw. "I missed soup a lot," he later said of his early recovery.

Several times every day around the clock unexpected things happen to ordinary people like you. They had SkyMed: get it before you need it so you'll have it when the need comes. SkyMed is based in Arizona and serves Americans and Canadians in the USA, Canada, Mexico, Bermuda, the Bahamas, and every nation of the Caribbean including Cuba. Global coverage is standard on Ultimate multiyear memberships and is a $99 option on annual memberships. See www.getskymed.com for more, or email Jeff at jeff.berger@skymed.com or call the office (EDT) any weekday during normal business hours at 508-747-8281. Health changes in a heartbeat; do not put off getting SkyMed protection.

27. Two Ways to Beat SkyMed's 90-Day Waiting Period to Cover Pre-Existing Conditions

On its annual and longer memberships, SkyMed has a 90-day waiting period for coverage of pre-existing conditions — after that, they're covered in full.

So, if you plan a summer vacation or another later this year, the best way to avoid that waiting period is to buy your annual or longer membership now. That way the waiting period is over when you're traveling.

Annual memberships always cost far less per day than short-term memberships (about $1.30/day for family annual memberships and $15.00/day for family short-term).

Annuals and multiyear memberships are also guaranteed renewable regardless of your age or health -- a big deal. If you buy a short-term membership, after it's over you must medically requalify to get a new one — and your health can change in a heartbeat.

SkyMed delivers up to 18 benefits: see them all here (downloadable PDF).

Questions? Email Jeff and ask away. Include your phone number and time zone, or call him directly at (508)-747-8281 (SkyMed calls only).

28. 10-Year Price Guarantee on New or Upgraded SkyMed 5-Yr Ultimate Memberships:

That's a 10-year price guarantee.

29. Restaurant of the Week:

Spiga is one of SXM's very best restaurants.

Located across from Tijen Parfumerie in the northern part of Grand Case, Spiga -- also known as Spiga Italian Kitchen by Chef Ciro Russo -- is anything but the kind of Italian you may be accustomed to. If you expect red and white checkerboard tablecloths, lots of noise, and meatballs and spaghetti -- Spiga is in an entirely different class of Italian dining.

The starters give you a hint. Homemade pumpkin ravioli, or lobster ravioli, or delectable fish tartare are but a few and each one is totally addictive.

Main courses cover the gamut of fine dining tastes -- from butter-tender filet mignon to delicious, highly creative, painstakingly crafted fish and poultry dishes and a spectrum of meats. Spiga has a unique menu with flavors designed to satisfy any appetite -- followed by extraordinary desserts.

See www.spiga-sxm.com and go. It's one of the best experiences you'll have on SXM...

31. Should You Get a Short-Term SkyMed Membership? Advantages, Disadvantages

Short term SkyMed Medical Evacuation memberships are cheap, only $15/day per couple (including minor children) or $9/day for an individual. Pre-existing conditions are covered immediately for those who qualify.

But the bad news is that once your short-term membership ends, it's over, and you must medically requalify to get coverage for any subsequent trip. Your health can change instantly so letting a membership disappear like that isn't the best thing to do for yourself.

Annual and multiyear memberships cost only about $1.30/day per couple -- way cheaper. They include more benefits -- especially Ultimate memberships. See all the features and benefits here.

SkyMed never increases the pricing on its memberships related to your advancing age or declining health. Once you sign up for SkyMed, you're a member for life as long as you pay your renewals on time. And SkyMed never cancels anyone because of advancing age or declining health.

Do NOT take chances by waiting. GET SKYMED BEFORE YOU NEED IT ...so you'll have it when you DO need it. See www.getskymed.com. In our opinion, it's the best medical evacuation membership product on the market. --Jeff

There is no membership cutoff for advancing age or declining health, unlike so-called competitive programs. And the price of your renewal membership will not increase due to declining health or advancing age. We know we repeat this... we do it for very good reason.

SkyMed Takes You Home® -- what else matters?

33. Q & A about SkyMed Medical Evacuation

Updated 5/8/17

What SkyMed Does: SkyMed Takes You Home® to doctors and hospitals you know and trust when you become critically ill or injured while traveling. SkyMed is your free ticket home aboard an ICU-equivalent emergency medical evacuation jet with an ICU-certified medical attendant on board to help make sure everything goes as it should.

How SkyMed Works: Like clockwork, you're taken from the hospital by ambulance to a waiting aircraft at SkyMed's expense; SkyMed makes all the arrangements and pays all costs for the medical evacuation jet and for the ambulance at the destination which takes you to a waiting team at your destination hospital, which already has your medical records and is ready to start helping you. There are no co-pays, no reimbursements, and no deductibles for SkyMed services, ever. SkyMed arranges everything and pays for all the services it provides.

Anything can happen — but you can trust SkyMed to take you home when you need it most.

What's It Cost? Without SkyMed, you'll need $45,000 or more payable in cash in advance to pay for an emergency medical evacuation — if you can make the dozens of calls necessary to set it up in an emergency. SkyMed does all that for you, for a small membership fee; you simply make one phone call 24/7/365 to get things going.

Why Buy Now? We're offering SkyMed now at very special pricing for JMB Website Supporters members only — but if you're a nonmember and care to join SkyMed now through us, we'll enroll you in JMB Website Supporters at the same time (five-year SkyMed memberships only). This offer is available only by phone; email jeff.berger@skymed.com and give Jeff your phone number so he can call you. He'll be happy to answer your questions, tell you about the different types of programs available, and their respective costs. He'll also be happy to fill out your application for an annual or multiyear SkyMed membership by phone and at the same time you can set up a JMB Website Supporters membership (required to get the biggest multiyear SKYMED discounts). Americans, Canadians, and ExPats only.

See www.getskymed.com or email Jeff at jeff.berger@skymed.com (use the subject "SkyMed inquiry") to learn more and get your questions answered.

Types of SkyMed Memberships:

First, short term memberships are for brief trips in North America, the Caribbean, the Bahamas, Bermuda, and Mexico -- over 30 countries total. Short-term memberships are very inexpensive, about $9 per day per person, maximum of about $15 per day. The disadvantage is that they only cover you for the short term you are traveling; when they expire, your protection disappears. When you're ready to travel again, you must reapply for a new short-term membership. Although the process is quick, you still must be medically approved and at some point, that may well be impossible. Bear in mind that many of us travel more than once or twice a year, even if it's only a few hundred miles from home to visit friends or relatives, which is why we recommend annual or multiyear SkyMed memberships instead of short-term memberships. You do not want your protection to end just when you may need it most.

Second, both annual and multiyear SkyMed memberships are essentially permanent coverage. Once you've been approved and as long as you continue to pay your membership fee on time, your membership cannot be discontinued as a result of advancing age or declining health — two critically important advantages that ensure you have coverage when you may need it most.

Third, Ultimate memberships cover multiple years and provide protection worldwide. The only exceptions are places like Syria, Afghanistan, Somalia, North Korea — places you won't visit anyway. (Ask before going anywhere dangerous/unusual.) Ultimate memberships also offer the greatest breadth of coverage. You can see a complete list of all the features and benefits of these coverages here.

Fourth, if you're an American or Canadian ex-pat living in St. Maarten / St. Martin or elsewhere outside your country for six months or more per year, you can still get SKYMED protection in the form of an ex-pat membership. Email us (see next paragraph) and we can tell you how it works and answer your questions.

In addition to everything else, Jeff Berger has been a SkyMed rep -- and now a SkyMed Ambassador -- for over 15 years. He'll be happy to answer questions; email him at Jeff.Berger@SkyMed.com. He generally returns messages within 24 hours. To see online frequently asked questions, go here. You can also see his SkyMed site at www.GetSkyMed.com.

JMB members get serious discounts on all multiyear SkyMed memberships. If you're not already a JMB member, join today and take advantage of those discounts.
